**Service to MCO and MIA suspended due to Hurricane Irma****

To Our Valued Customers:

Please be advised that our linehaul service to Orlando and Miami, FL will be temporarily suspended due to approaching Hurricane Irma. We will continue to monitor the situation throughout this weekend and next week. Service will hopefully resume next week depending on the severity of the storm's impact on the region and on our agent stations there.

Sincerely,

The Staff at Direct Air Service
